

21st November: Local Autumn Walk

Even with paths getting muddier and weather cooler 21 of us joined the autumn colours walk through countryside between Hedge End, Botley and Manor Farm followed by light lunch at 'The Barn'. The backdrop to this photo shows the view over the upper Hamble estuary across the area where the Reflections and Connections new woodland is being developed.

