

19th September: Titchfield and Canal

18 of us managed this walk on a very blustery bracing day through fields of Pumpkins and wind-blown Sunflowers. We also learnt a little about Ordnance Survey Triangulation (Trig) points. Once off the farmland and onto the canal tow path we had some protection from the weather. Those that stayed for lunch enjoyed much reminiscing and good food at the Queens Head in Titchfield.